STUDIES

MbechaTech, Buea, South

04/2016 - 10/2016

Aspiring IT

- I studied in this tech facility as whole, started with basics then word processing, spreadsheets, database administration (MS Access), graphics and other MS Office products.
- Then came my drive for tech enhancement.

Zepstra Ltd, Buea, South West

02/2020 - 08/2020

Aspiring Web Development

- I studied in this tech company for 5 months kickstarting my web development career and passion to drive further. There, I grabbed frontend building blocks (HTML, CSS & JS).
- An attestation was awarded.

Course enrollments till date, Online

09/2020 - 04/2023

Junior to Senior Backend Web & Frontend Mobile Developer

- I studied PHP, MySQL and API integrations and what was seen in my skill list above, later came Laravel.
- I've been coding in Laravel for a year+, built a couple of projects on it, most I must say.
- Just began with Dart and Flutter (Mobile) about 2 months ago.

CarlozDev, Internship, Douala, Littoral

06/2021 - 08/2021

MERN stack introduction

- We were thought a bit of non-relational databases (MongoDB), but that wasn't mastered by me.
- I look forward to focusing on comprehending it in the future as well.

Future, Online

CURRENT - UNKNOWN

Becoming a Senior Fullstack Mobile Developer

- I dream of perfecting my mobile development skills in the nearest future

EXPERIENCE

Bezhol Int'l, Ghana, Remote

11/ 2023– 08/2024

Assistant Lead Developer

- Evaluated staff performance regularly against established benchmarks; provided constructive feedback aimed at fostering continuous improvement.
- We used a couple of APIs, that of LinkedIn and other social medias at real-time.
- Mentored junior team members, fostering professional growth and skill development.

VelpFi, General Hospital, Buea, Remote/Onsite

11/2024– 12/2024

Lead Developer

- The company builds software that solves common problems and sell to large firms
- We were employed as developers to maintain, correct & upgrade a hospital system built by the previous developers.
- It was a success. I would have loved to show that to you but all the companies I usually work in obliges me to sign NDAs because they are always highly classified information.

Freelancing, Remote

07/2023– DATE

Developing on hire

- I've been building sites on one-time hire for over a year and a half, even when I got a stable job.
- Wasn't a reliable source of income but improved my skills anyways.

EDUCATION

Bachelors of Engineering / Software Engineering
